

Betty Joann Davis

March 20, 1935 - October 29, 2018

On March 20th 1935 Betty Joann Davis was born in Astoria, Oregon to Charles and Valda Hess. She would be the 4th daughter in a family of 7 girls. She lived and attended school in Astoria, Oregon until she met and married Ray Scott at 15 years old. They had 5 children, Debbie, Jody, Janet, Daniel and Raymond JR. They were a military family and traveled to Guam, California and Rhode Island before settling down in Skyway, Washington in the late sixties. Her marriage to Ray came to an end 30 plus years later. She then met and fell in love with Robert Carl Davis. They were married on May 31, 1986 blessing her with 2 step sons Gary and Robert. They enjoyed 12 years of marriage until Carl's passing in November 1998. She remained living in Skyway until 2011 when she sold her house and moved to Okanogan with her daughter Janet where she enjoyed a life of visiting the senior center to play cards, going to the casino and traveling to see family and friends. Earlier this year, her health began to decline and she passed away peacefully in her sleep on Oct. 29th.

The thing she was most proud of was her large family and that she could tell you all of their birthdays. She is preceded in death by four of her sisters, Colleen, Jane, Ruth, and Billie, her oldest son Daniel (Debra) and stepson Robert. She is survived by two sisters, Aggie and Nancy, three Daughters, Debbie, Jody (Craig), and Janet (Bill), her youngest son Ray (Tracy), 15 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.
