“ Esther was a huge part of my young life. She was a strong but very loving lady. I would go there for daycare and I have so many wonderful memories. She made the best canned cherries and her baked apples with ice cream where amazing. I remember sitting in the middle of the raspberry patch on a hot summer day with the sprinklers running over head stuffing myself with raspberries while cooling off. And walking to church on Sunday Thank you for all the wonderful memories! You will always hold a special place in my heart!

“ Esther had a huge impact on my life as my favorite Sunday School teacher. She showed the love of Jesus to us in every way. I am celebrating the thought of her enjoying our Lord in heaven.

“ I was Esther's pastor for five years. She was a true Christian, not just in name but her daily walk. She would walk to church in the winter with her children and everybody else's children who happened to be staying with her. She was always "there" to help in church ministries and care for other people...never complaining, always willing. ou just could not help loving this wonderful lady. Enjoy your new life, Esther! “ I loved this lady. If you ever had a friend she was one. I loved a story she told me just before she moved to Wenatchee. I asked her how she was doing and she told me she was doing fine. She said her and Mrs. Bailey would go to pick up groceries on Tues. and then they would go up to the old folks home on Thurs. and sing to the old people Always young at heart. She will be missed dearly. So sorry for your loss. Patsy Eli
