He planted his first orchard of golden delicious in 1959. Paul proved himself to be a successful farmer and orchardist, eventually owning apple, cherry and pear orchards in Okanogan, Douglas, and Chelan Counties. Always a mechanic at heart, he restored vintage automobiles, motorcycles, and even a Stearman Bi-Plane. He was an amateur beekeeper, gardener and avid reader with a special interest in Early American and Native American history.

“ So sorry to the family for your loss. Paul was a customer of Hamilton Farm Equipment for as long as I can remember. He could do most of his own repairs but had us make major repairs. I always enjoyed our conversations over years.
