Lonny, gave me my first music job, I was 16 and the band was, Lonny, Wally gator and myself, we played at the full house on 7 St in Phoenix, he believed in me, I played with Lonny and the playmates for several years, Hubert, Larry Jennings and Dodie Dee, I went on to play professionally from then to now, all because Lonny gave me a chance. I've never known Lonny to say a bad word of nobody, whenever I needed help, him Larry and Hubert were always there for me, I love them all and there family as my own. We have been separated for many years, but I've missed them everyday. God received a very special soul, rest in peace my brother. And thank you for the chance Alonzo.

*My dearest brother, Lonnie,
We'll miss your smiles & laughter the most. Country music was your passion, he wrote songs & recorded 1 record. Somewhere there's a suitcase full of songs he had written but never recorded. He was always the center of attention at family gatherings & parties. Lonnie got his 1st guitar at 14, Elvis showed him the rest! He will be missed by all that knew him. We'll love you forever. Love your sisters, brothers and all your Arizona family. Your in Gods hands, now.. Rest in peace*

I love you Lonzo, and I will miss you. Whenever I go to your house now, I always look at the window you sat by. You were always watching, to see what was going on, and you would smile at me, and open the door. You always said "come on in Sis". You were a very important part of my life for over 50 years. I know you are completely healed now. You can run, sing and do all the things you haven't been able to do for so long. You never complained about how you felt, and you always had a smile for everyone. We will love you, and miss you for the rest of our lives. You are one of the heavenly choir now. GOD BLESS you .

“ I never got to see my uncle Lonzo as the great musician he was but I always heard the amazing, crazy or funny stories.

But what I did have the privilege of seeing watching his face light up any time a baby or kid was nearby, it was the greatest thing. He had a heart made of gold, and kids would just melt it. He was always up for a big hug whenever anyone offered it and would sit and joke and long as you would let him. I'm going to miss you very much, my precious gruncle. I know you're breathing easy and singing loud for all the angels now. Can't wait until the day we see you again.

“ Sweet papa, so many memories I have when I was little and staying with you and Grammy during the summer, but the one that sticks with me the most was when I stayed one summer and when I woke up that morning it was just Papa and I. Nobody else. Then I realized it was his birthday. So I started looking through all the cupboards to see if we had cake Mix. I found some, so I then I started looking for frosting and I told papa that I was gonna make him a birthday cake. I was probably 10 or 11. So he laughed and I started making it. When we finished making it. I sang him happy birthday and we eat his birthday cake. That was one of the best memories I have with my papa. I love you papa. I will cherish our memories forever❤️

My Uncle Alonzo and my dad Hubert McCracken had a band called "Lonny and the Playmates". They played country rock in Phoenix AZ. Him and Aunt Linda my moms sister had four boys and mom and dad had us five girls and we grew up inseparable. For our birthdays one year we got to go to the bar and drink Shirley Temples and watch them play. It was crazy I don't know how old I was but I will never forget how hard and long I laughed. He sang a song with a woman's part in it and there was a blond wig in the bass drum he would grab it our throw it on his head and sing in a high pitch voice with his hand on his hip. The song was Telephone man not sure. The whole bar was hysterical. There are so many memories we are lucky to have had such a great uncle. Next to our dad he watched out for us! Dori McCracken Very proud to have been your niece. Will miss you for the rest of my life. He was one of the most kind souls I have ever known.

Uncle Lonzo was one of my most favorite people in the whole world. He always had a smile. I think back to when I was little and all the times I got to listen to Uncle Lonzo and Grandpa play guitars. As an adult I wish I would have recorded them playing and singing. I loved when Uncle Lonzo would play I Love a Rainy Night and it is still one of my favorite songs. I will miss him and his smile and his talent of entertaining others with his music. We love you Uncle Lonzo and you will be missed by many ♡

“ I remember his cooking it would smell so good throughout the whole house and I would go see what kind of concoction he came up with. Rocky use to always tell me my dad just throws together what ever he finds in the cupboard and refrigerator so who knows what it is, so I don't eat it. But I wasn't afraid I always have to taste it at least once and to my surprise it was always delicious. I would tell him your missing out your dad is a good cook. Another memory is when Rocky, Alonzo and I went to see grandma Dora in the hospital after we had left he asked if I could pull into circle k so he could get beer some beer so I did. As he came out of the store he walked right pass our car and another similar car was parked next to us and I told rocky get your dad attention he's getting in the wrong car and Rocky says let's see what he does. So Lonzo opens the back door to the car and there's a lady sitting in the drivers seat and he hops right in by then I'm laughing so hard I'm crying, next thing you know he's jumping out of the car as fast as he can apologizing profusely and sees us and gets in the car and says to us " Damn you kids why did you just let me do that I scared that poor lady half to death" by then me and Rocky are laughing so hard we had Tears streaming down our face. He just shook his head and started laughing with us. He had a heart of gold. He never judge me always told me my son is lucky to have me and always said Hon you need to take him and your family and start a life of your own get away from here. So we did. I'm sorry we didn't come and visit but when we did talk on the phone you always told us how proud you were. You and the rest of the family are always in my prayers and I thank god he put you in my path even for a brief moment. I will always cherish the memories we've all shared and you will always hold a special place in my heart ❤️ I know your in heaven singing a song to god and all your love ones because that was who you were. Until we meet again may you Rest In Peace. In my heritage you are one of the holy people now.

“ I remember the day i got off the greyhound bus i was 16 years old and i had bleached white hair standing straight up, bracelets and chains and a black leather coat...i looked at jason and said "does your dad have a cigarette". Dad must have thought " oh my god what have we done" but he never said a word, never judged me and yes he gave me that cigarette.
I couldnt believe the love and patience this man had showed me..he raised me like his own daughter and i loved him like my own father...i love you so much daddy and i cant wait to see you again!!

We lived in Arizona hot summer nights mom would put us to bed with a wet cool sheet that she would lay over us and we would fall asleep to there music playing and the lullaby of my Uncle Lonzo singing You were such kind soul I was always proud to call you Uncle. “ Papa, as I always called him, was one of the most kind and goodhearted men Ive known. I feel extremely Blessed and thankfull that I was able to know him and spend so much time with him. He always had a smile and I dont think Ive ever once seen him in a grumpy mood or have a bad day. He always made me laugh and smile everyday in one way or another. When he would want me to run to the store for him or I was just going out for something, he would always say " here is some bubble gum money for you". So one day after he did this I bought some bubble gum while at the store and when I got home I went straight to him chewing the gum and I blew a bubble and then said "Papa look, I got some bubble gum." Well he laughed and thought that was so funny. I just am so glad I was able to share so many good memories and laughs with him. I am blessed for sure. My heart is so sad and Im gonna miss him so much. I already do. But I sure am thankful God gave me the chance to love such a wonderful and kindhearted man who I call Papa. I Love You Papa and I Miss You.
