“ Dear Howard and Dawn

Words can not express my shock and sadness to learn of her accident this week. Too young and too beautiful. I can't imagine your grief at loosing such a wonderful daughter.

I remember her well as an orthodontic patient. She was always cooperative in doing her part to make that beautiful smile!

I am sure you have a supportive church family but if there is anything we can do, please do not hesitate to ask. Having hope in Christ is of course our ultimate support. He promises that someday soon He "will make all things new". "...and there will be no more tears...". How we long for that day when we as families can be reunited with our loved ones.

“ Amanda had such a unique, beautiful gift of music. It was such a pleasure working with a musician that shared my passion for the Lord. SHE LOVED TO WORSHIP! I loved worshiping with her in my studio recording her music. I was truly blessed to have known Amanda. I grieve with her family and cry out for God's mercy and grace in this time of great pain. Her loss is devastating.
