A nice tribute to Betty. I did not get to know her only in the last few years when she started attending the Mansfield Community Church with her friend Roberta Larson. She was gracious and soft spoken. Loved to hear the piano played and adored the little children. So glad her pain is over and she is home with the Lord. We shall meet again, sweet Betty.

“ We lived next door to Jim and Betty in East Wenatchee for quite a few years. We watched their kids growing up and had so much fun visiting with the family. Betty was truly a gracious lady. Always soft spoken with an easy smile. We will always remember her fondly. Our condolences to the family. We share your loss.

“ I have fond memories of my visit with Betty while I was in high school. Mamaw Alcie, Papaw Scott and I visited for a week and enjoyed seeing Jim and Betty renew their wedding vows. We also visited Lake Chelan and Grand Coulee Dam with them among other places. However, the best part of the trip was Betty's cooking! I remember those cinnamon rolls well!

She was a beautiful, strong lady inside and out!

My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
