“ I just learned of this, and it is very sad news. I am so very sorry. I really liked Brenda and have many great memories of her. Seems like we were just talking together in the Brewster grocery a few weeks ago. She was always such an upbeat person and fun to be with. My condolences and prayers for her family. So sorry I didn't know! I would have surely gone to her service had I known! She was a sweetheart and will be missed by her many friends. She was a great cheerleader and avid supporter of the Pateros Sports programs. I am just shocked and saddened!

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Brenda was one of my best friends from 7th grade on, she was maid of honor at my wedding, my partner in crime in school, horseback riding and a large part of my early life. Although we didn't keep in close contact in our later years, I always considered her one of my best friends and we would catch up with all the gossip. RIP my dear friend, you are riding Dan and with a smile on your face.
