

Carol Dean Peters

December 17, 1927 - July 16, 2019

Carol D. Peters, a resident of Manson for 71 years, passed away in Brewster, at Regency Harmony House on Tuesday, July 16, at the age of 91. Carol was born at home on the family farm in Lima County, Illinois to Truman and Lydia Waite. She was an identical twin of Ferol, who preceded her in death in 2016.

Carol married Paul Peters on January 19, 1946 in Hannibal, MO and moved to the family orchard in Manson where they worked together growing apples, as active members of Trout, Inc. They were married for 57 years before Paul preceded her in death in August, 2003. Carol continued to live in Manson, enjoying her view of Lake Chelan, her trips to Blueberry Hills, and her many visitors, for 14 years before she became a resident of Harmony House in 2016.

She is survived by her brother, Daryl; her three daughters, Linda (Roger) Sorensen; Joan (Jack) Maloof; Donna (Charles) Wills; five grandchildren: Kim Goodall, Kari Sorensen, Justin Maloof, Nicole Suk and Jessica Tang. Also surviving are ten great-grandchildren: Larissa, Shaylyn, Anelise, Ashley, Joshua, Emily, Tyler, Mariah, Alia and Jack David.

A service will be held on Friday, July 19, 10:30 am at Barnes Chapel, 510 W. Indian Ave. Brewster WA.

Burial will follow on Wednesday, July 24, at 10:30 am at Evergreen Memorial Park in East Wenatchee.
