“ I met Conrad in the 80's through his Mom and he became like a younger brother to me. One time in particular that I remember is going out to Chinese food with him when I was 9 months pregnant, I think Conrad was 19 or 20 at the time. I went into labor halfway through dinner and he was in such a panic, it was so funny. It was quite a ride home! I wish I had met your beautiful family and I'm so happy that you had such a wonderful and fulfilling life and career. Rest in peace, my dear friend. We had some good talks and some good laughs and I will never forget you. My sincere sympathy and prayers to all of your family.

“ Some called him Conrad or Jr but to me he will always be "little Conrad" (even though I had to stand on my tiptoes to give him a hug. He was a shy little boy who grew up to be an amazing man. He was handsome, skill full, confident, sensitive and strong in character. He had a successful career as a firefighter as well as being a successful contractor yet with all of his success the thing that made his eyes light up was when he showed me pictures and talked about his "miracle daughter" and how important his family was to him.

I miss the conversations we had as he made the long trip home from the fire station to Chelan.

We both believed that "we are who we are because of and in spite of the things that we endured in life". You did good. Love you, Aunt Carol

“ I went to school with Conrad, we rode the bus together, I haven't been in contact with him since, but hearing about his loss still saddened me, that's the kind of person he was, one you miss even though you haven't seen him in years. My heart and prayers are with his family.
