“ I remember Elizabeth Ann as a toddler, when she, her Dad, Mom, and brother Ralph lived in an apartment, at the family homestead, in Norwood, MA. Her family moved back to WA in the 50's and I hadn't seen her, again, until 1972 when I took a trip to WA.

After Elizabeth graduated from high school, she came East and spent seven weeks with me. She had the best time - reuniting with family and meeting relatives. I didn't see Elizabeth Ann again until the 80's, when she was working in NY and came for a visit, at my camp, in ME. Somewhere along the line, we lost touch and in 2002, when my husband passed away, Elizabeth sent me the most beautiful book about "life". She was a very modest person, but was very thoughtful and compassionate.

It is with deep sorrow and My sympathy is extended to the entire Socci and Bisque families. My heart aches. I am so sorry for your loss. Words cannot express how I feel about the passing of Elizabeth Ann.

*With Love and Sympathy always ...
Love Aunt Susan (Socci) Mattson*
