“ I stayed with Ellener for 4 years. My memories of her are special. I can still hear her laugh. It was open and infectious!

“ I knew her as "Mrs. Van Epps" when growing up in Lakeside, together with her children, particularly Dwayne and Dale. She was a gracious woman with a kindness that shown like a diamond.

“ I've known Ellener since 2016 when I met her at Chelan Senior Center, then later helped her with her health insurance. I most remember her love for her pretty cat. She needed a cat carrier so I loaned her mine. When I picked it up, she had cleaned it! I was impressed. Her cat had a fine checkup and she was thrilled. Also, she made the best of every day which I always admire. My condolences to her family and friends. She will be missed.
