“ Some of My Memories of Frank D. Emigh – By Diana Hogan, Nina’s Mom

He is my daughter’s Grandfather. We love him. He will be missed. I will always remember him with a smile on his face. Unfortunately Nina and I did not live close to Frank but when we did come and visit and when we would call him just to chat, it was always such a pleasure. He sure loved the Mexican restaurant in town. So did we! YUM! We were especially grateful to be included at his 90th Birthday celebration held in Walla Walla. Nina got to meet more members of her Emigh family. I hope that those connections will someday increase as it is important for people to know their heritage. While I wish selfishly that he were still here so we could visit him again, I am comforted knowing that he has been set free and is whole again and is with Doris and Blake. I would prefer all three of you were still here but since that was not the Plan, I am glad you are all together again and Frank is no longer living alone. We love him and always will.
