

Garold Osborn

November 21, 1921 - June 7, 2015

Garold Kenneth Osborn passed away in his home at The Harmony House in Brewster, WA on June 7, 2015.

Born on November 21, 1921 in Glencoe, Oklahoma, Garold was 93 years old. Garold grew up on his family's farm in Morrison, Oklahoma. After graduating from Morrison High School as Valedictorian of his class, he spent several years in the Civilian Conservation Corp before joining the Army to answer his country's call for World War II. Garold was part of the landing forces on the beaches of Italy and saw action as the US and her allies drove the Germans back across Europe. Discharging in 1945, Garold attended the University of California Berkeley where he earned his master's degree in Animal Sciences. Garold was employed by the US Department of Naval Warfare for over 40 years, and was a published author for his experimental work in radiation, and climate acclimation training.

Garold retired to Boulder City, Nevada where he was a volunteer for organizations such as Lend A Hand, his Church, The Public Library, The Boulder City Chamber of Commerce and the Boulder City Tourist Train. He fulfilled his life of service by building a trust fund naming Father Flannigan's Boys Home as beneficiary.

In retirement Garold was able to travel extensively and visited countries such as France, Italy, Germany, Russia, Ireland, Iceland, Mexico, The Amazon, The Galapagos Islands, Thailand to name a few.

Garold is survived by his sister Virginia Broadbent of Okanogan, WA. Nieces
