“ Oh my goodness!, Your Dad,I don't know where to start! First off ,being my first real boss,30 years this year I met him,he took the time to teach me lessons on working hard and giving second chances!! And that smile ,when he smiled it was big:) 8 years ago when my Dad passed away,he said anything you need just let me know,he gave me several days off to be with my Dad which meant the world to me! His heart was big and no one will ever replace him on this earth! God Bless you all,he leaves behind a super great Wife and family that are strong and will make him proud!! Love and hugs to you all❤️ Candee Warner

“ I remember I was young 4 or 5 when Uncle Harrell aunt Ethel, Jake, Charlie were down for a visit Jake must have been 18 or so. A cousin on moms side was visiting and Jake was gonna impress her. So he decided to get ma's horse up outta the pasture. Threw a saddle on her. He rode out in the front yard gighed the horse and she threw him off right quick. That took some starch outta Jake for the rest of the evening. Fun memory.

“ My wife and I feel very fortunate to have known Jake for many, many years. We were lucky to have shared so many laughs with him and Lisa.

Rest In Peace, Friend. See you in the hereafter.
