“ Jerry and his mother Donie lived at our condo. We enjoyed them both so very much. Jerry was a brave man and he was a good friend. He made us laugh and always had something for us when we came to visit - his home grown "matoes", candy, a Corona Light or just a funny joke. He will be missed. RIP Jerry.....

“ Our sweet Jerald "Jerry" Loren Baumgarten, born in Prosser, WA Sept 21, 1949 to Loren and Liona Baumgarten of Grandview passed away peacefully at his home in Chelan on May 22 after a strongly fought battle with cancer.

Jerry attended the Grandview School system and later joined the U. S. Army serving in Cambodia, Vietnam 1970-71; he was a proud U. S. Veteran.

He worked as a firefighter for the Chelan Forest Service and as a worker for City of Chelan; also for the local Casino. Jerry was widely known in Chelan for sharing his scrumptious, home-grown tomatoes, which he shared with all. Jerry was a friend to all, never a stranger...and loved by all he met, known as "Jerry, the Tomato Man".

Jerry was preceded in death by his father, Loren A. Baumgarten, and his brother, Ronald L. Baumgarten. He is survived by his mother, Liona "Donie" Baumgarten, and numerous family members.
