“ I wish to share my thoughts of my friend Jerry.
I go to the same church as Jerry did, The Living Stone church and I would always stop and visit with Jerry every Sunday. He always set in the same chair. I felt we had developed kind of a bond between us as we were both veterans. I thing back to the time I had brought him hamburgers and fry's just after he got out of the hospital from a heart surgery. But Jerry sure enjoyed it, so did I.
Jerry, I'll see you some day soon in Heaven.
