

Jonia Sue Partee

July 26, 1950 - August 26, 2020

Jonia Sue Partee was born on July 26, 1950 in Waldron Arkansas to Doris Youvone and William Junior Webb of Cauthron, Arkansas. Sue passed away at her home in Chelan on August 26, 2020 after a courageous 20-year battle with cancer and other health issues.

Around 1954 the Webb family moved from Arkansas to the Chelan/Manson area. Sue graduated Chelan High School in 1968 and has made this valley her home ever since.

She inherited her mother's natural green thumb and always had a vegetable garden and flower beds. She loved going on family fishing trips where it was not a top priority to catch fish, but to mostly enjoy the time spent with family. She was also a talented artist who loved to craft and paint whimsical yard decorations for to sell at various local craft fairs.

Sue was a longtime Eagles member and at one time served as Madam President of the Auxiliary. She enjoyed getting together with all her friends for Eagles club events and to dance, play pool or cards. When she was not at the Eagles, crafting, or working in her garden she loved going to the Apple Cup Cafe to play Bingo on Sunday evenings.

Despite her health challenges, Sue has remained loving and devoted to her family and will be dearly missed by her daughter Sheila (Allen) Merchant, and son Roy Allen of Chelan; her sister LaVonne (Webb) Ramey of Wenatchee; two brothers- Jay Webb of Yakima and Floyd Webb of Kent; as well as many nieces and nephews and longtime friends.

Sue was also fortunate to have the support and companionship of her close friend JoAnne LaMotte who was like another sister to her.

There will be a celebration of life for Sue Partee at a date to be announced later.
