

Kathy Kulstad

August 19, 1952 - April 7, 2025

Kathy Southwick Kulstad passed away on Monday, April 7, 2025, in Chelan, WA. She was born on August 19, 1952, in Chelan, WA, to Claude Riddell Southwick and Mildred Marie Griffith Southwick.

Kathy attended Chelan High School and graduated in 1970. She retired after 15 years working as a road construction flagger around 2018. She had previously worked in Alaska in food service and as a welders helper and worked in food service in Montana.

She enjoyed doing arts and crafts. She painted gold pans inspired by her stay in Alaska as well as crocheted and knitted. She was also enjoyed reading books when the weather was too bad to be in her garden. She grew and propagated a collection of house plants.

Kathy was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her sisters: Karen Sweeney of Chelan, WA, Julie Southwick, of Tukwila, WA, and Jodie Southwick of Chelan, WA; nephews: Rob (Des) Sweeney of Deer Park, WA, and Todd (Jodi) Sweeny, of Chelan, WA; great-nieces: Taylor and Taryn; and great-nephews: Ryson and Mason.

Precht Rose Chapel is helping the family with arrangements. Please leave your thoughts and memories as www.prechtrose.com

Tribute Wall

GW

“ Kathy was in my SAIL exercise class at Heritage Heights for a short time. We appreciated her ability to be cheerful even though she was on oxygen. She was witty in class and we missed her humor when she quit attending. I recall when I first met her and we shook hands. She had "gardening hands" so I knew she loved plants outdoors and in. I appreciated her artistic skills.

Rest in Peace dear lady. My condolences to her family.

Gaylen Willett - April 08, 2025 at 01:45 PM