Larry and I began our friendship a long time ago, back in 1973 on the dock at City Transfer. From that time on I knew I had a long time friend. Larry was so smart, he helped me with everything from my finances to baby info...he knew it all. This really saddens me to receive this news about Larry. We went on together after City with a brand new kind of job, driving for The Boeing Co. Wow were we excited to land that job after all those years in the moving business. I lost track of Larry when he started his Orondo house project on the Columbia. I did speak a couple of times to him and he told me about his ventures in Palm Springs. He was really enjoying his retirement as he should. Larry, my friend, I'll never forget you ...ever. What a mark you've made on the lives of my family and me and of course all the people you worked with at City Transfer and Boeing trucking. Gone but NEVER forgotten.

“My friend Todd Osborn called me this morning with the sad news of Larry's passing. I haven't seen him for many years now but still think of him as one of my best friends of my life. We worked together at City moving systems back in the early eighties. I was a green rookie not having the first clue as to what to do in this new job. All of the old timers there hated me and would not want to work with me. Larry took me under his wing and taught me the ropes. We hit it off immediately and became friends and had many adventures together. We worked hard and played hard at Lake Tapps and Entiat and Chelan. Those were the best years of my life. I can safely say that he was one of the strongest men I have ever known in every way. I know that Larry being the kind of person that he was had a full and fulfilling life. I loved this man! I did meet you all but you probably do not remember me as it was many years past. My deepest condolences go out to his family.
