

Lucille "Toots" Miller

June 26, 1944 - April 25, 2010

Our dear sister and aunt passed away in Sacred Heart Hospital April 25, 2010 following complications from brain cancer.

Lucille, fondly known as "Toots", was born in Wenatchee, WA on June 26, 1944 to Ursula and Domie Cavadini of Mansfield, WA. Lucille continued to live in Mansfield all of her life and after attending beauty school in Wenatchee, owned and operated a beauty salon for many years serving local residents. She was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Mansfield and was active in several activities in the community including serving as a school board member, Senior Citizen coordinator, a member of the Grange along with a variety of other services. She loved to laugh, be with friends and play games especially cards.

Lucille was preceded in death by her husband Roger Miller and her parents, Domie and Ursula Cavadini. Lucille is survived by her sisters Marie (Ed) Wesselman, Donna (Dean) Hegge, Deloris (Tom) Davis and brother Norman and special sister-in-law Verlee Cavadini. She was very fond of her Godchildren Marlie Davis, Dan Cavadini and Rod Wesselman. She leaves a legacy of laughter with her numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and a close friend Naomi Pinger.
