

Lynda Gale Loth

January 4, 1959 - November 23, 2023

Lynda Loth (McFadden) was born on January 4, 1959, and gracefully bid farewell to this world, on November 23, 2023. She was a committed wife to her beloved husband, Robert Loth, and a loving mother to her son, Josh Marsh, who resides in Shelton, WA.

Lynda found fulfillment and joy in her profession, serving as a dedicated employee at Safeway in Chelan, WA. She approached her work with passion and a warm smile, making a positive impact on the lives of her colleagues and customers.

Throughout her life, Lynda cherished her family and held them close to her heart. Lynda's warm and compassionate spirit touched the lives of those around her, leaving an indelible mark on their hearts. Her departure from this world is a sorrowful loss, but her memory will endure, inspiring her loved ones to live with kindness, grace, and love.

May the beautiful memories of Lynda provide comfort and solace to those left behind at this difficult time. She will forever be remembered as a cherished wife, a devoted mother, a dedicated friend and a beloved family member. Rest in peace dear Lynda, knowing that your impact lives on in the hearts of all who knew you.

Sadly, she was preceded in death by her father, Kenneth McFadden; mother, Bucelle Daugherty (McFadden); brother, Gary McFadden; and her sister, Cyndi Makenzie. Their memories will forever remain etched in her families mind, and her absence will be deeply felt.

Left to honor her memory are her devoted husband, Robert Loth, who lovingly cared for her until the end, and son, Josh Marsh. She is also survived by sister, Zandra Whittington of Spokane, WA, as well as brothers: Terry McFadden of Wenatchee, WA, and Larry McFadden of East Wenatchee, WA. Theirs was a bond forged through shared experiences, laughter, and unwavering support.

There will be an inurnment followed by a Celebration of Life in the spring of 2024.

“ Oh my beautiful friend. How, I will miss you. You were more than just a co worker for 10 years. You were more like family. I will always be grateful for all you did for our family when Bryce, battled brain cancer. The jokes we shared at work. The laughter and even tears. You earned those wings my friend. Fly high and until we meet again. I love you

“ We have known the McFadden kids since they were very little. They were a very bonded family. Lynda became an icon at Safeway, always ready to help & most all the time with a smile. She & I have our first name in common, she usually greeted me with ‘Hi Lynda with a y’ .. we agreed that we liked the spelling! She will be missed beyond words .. sincere condolences to Zandra, Terry & Larry ☐❤️

Miss seeing you at Safeway. It is not the same without you there. My name was Elsa but you always called me Elsie. I never corrected you. I just smiled and said Hi Lynda. Mark was a thorn for you but he considered you a friend. Rlp your work here is done

I recently found out that Lynda had passed & my heart wilted with sadness--sadness that I would no longer be greeted by name, making me want to stay in the store longer than I should. She was instantly helpful & always had a smile. If hubby were not with me, she'd be sure to send greetings to "Mr. Rogers" because she thought he resembled Kenny Rogers. Now they will be able to greet each other every day! since hubby passed 3/19. Hugs to her siblings. 🙏💜🙏💜🙏

“ Linda worded for us at the Sand and Surf Restaurant and was always such a positive person. If someone was down she would always try to make their day better. After the restaurant closed and I had left town I would always see Linda at Safeway when I stopped in for something and it was always like she had just seen me yesterday. Linda will be missed. Condolences to her family. Mauri McHenry Mosman

“ My wife and I met Linda in 2005. We would either see her at the store or at Frogs. She would always say something like " how are you young-ins doing", even though we were older than her. Made us laugh. She was always smiling and giving us hugs. Our condolences to her husband and family.

*My condolences to you Terry, your loving wife, Ceceilia and family. Lynda was a beautiful soul. I always looked for her at Safeway when I was up in Chelan. Luckily I got to see her once in a while. There she would be, smiling her smile with open arms to give me a hug. May she rest in peace and love. She will be forever remembered and missed.

“ My heart is beyond heavy for the passing of our dear, dear Lynda 😞 I so wished I would have hugged her longer the final time we hugged at Chelan Safeway! Always a Beautiful loving smile for us all and a sweet chuckle even when she was training a stocker how to clean up 4 bottles of red wine during rush shopping hour near the check stands! I asked her on our last visit when she was going to retire, she said not for a long time I love my Job and Customer Friends, which we all know she did with all her heart. Much love to her heart broken husband, Robert, son, Josh and family members! Hug you on the Flip Side Sweetest Lynda! ☐💕😊💕 ”
