

Marcel Lane

May 15, 1927 - October 8, 2016

Beatrice Marcell Lane, and her twin Lindell, were born May 15th, 1927 in Bertram, Texas to John B. and Myrtle (Williams) Stewart and departed on October 8th, at Central Washington Hospital, Wenatchee Washington, surrounded by her loving family.

Her early life was reminiscent of the great Steinbeck novel, The Grapes of Wrath. When she was only 5 years old the family of seven traveled from their share cropping cotton fields in Texas to California, looking for a better life. Once there they began the transient life of the itinerant farm laborer moving up and down the state, living in tents with dirt floors and harvesting crops that belonged to others. She told us many times how her mother, after working all day in the fields, would wash, starch and iron their pillow cases to remind them each night as they lay down their heads, that they were better than their circumstances.

As she reached her teen years Marcell worked too, finding employment in a local café. It is there she met the love of her life Si. After a 6 month courtship they married on December 17, 1943. They were married for 60 years when Si passed away on April 5, 2004.

During her lifetime Marcell worked a variety of jobs from waitressing to defense plants, Apple packing to day care and also as a baker but none of these were as important to her as the job of raising her family. Trecia, Tim and Jo, her children, were her pride and joy. She loved playing with them, sewing for them and making sure that they were respectfully of others. She lived her life as an example. She was a woman of tremendous faith and tried to treat others as she wanted to be treated.

Marcell is survived by two daughters; Trecia (Terry) Johnson, of Monroe, Wa., Jo (Dale) Crossland, of Brewster, Wa., granddaughters; Marika (Avi) Finkel, Atticus and Augustus of Seattle; Stacey (Joe) House, Joseph and Shelby of Elma, Wa., Dione Crossland, Riverside, Wa., Debby(Mike) Moore, Brewster, Wa., and grandson Duane (Lori) Savage of Elma, Wa. Zach and Morgan of Wenatchee; She is preceded in death by her loving husband, son Tim, her parents, 4 sisters and 2 brothers. They are happily reunited now.

“ A sweet and gentle soul. She loved to tell stories and would look you in the eye while doing so..her eyes twinkled-- part mischief and part innocence..talking with her was a spiritual experience. Sweet Marcel

Being twins, our mother and Aunt Marcell shared an unbreakable bond and love. It was almost like having two mothers when we were growing up. She has been a role model, not only for her children and nieces and nephews, but for everyone who knew her. She was a woman of faith and compassion for everyone. We always knew we were loved. Over the last few years whenever we talked to her on the phone she would always tell us that each night she would lie in bed and pray for every member of the family and their children and grandchildren. Sometimes she'd fall asleep while praying and wake up during the night to continue her prayer especially if she thought she'd forgotten someone.

Our hearts are breaking for Trecia, JoElla, Marika, and their families because we know the pain and loss they're feeling. We will always love and miss her. We know she is reunited with her beloved Si and Tim and all of her family who've gone on before her. We can just picture her with her sisters singing together again. She was definitely a Proverbs 31 woman who children rise up and call her blessed.
