

Margaret Delight Winton

November 3, 1950 - February 14, 2016

Margaret Delight Winton was born on November 3, 1950 in Delta, Colorado to Jesse Edward Easter and Rosa May Gray. She passed from this earth on February 14, 2016. The 8th child of what would become a family of 11 children, she had 6 brothers and 4 sisters. She is preceded in death by 3 brothers, Vernon Easter, Benjamin Easter and John Easter and 2 sisters, Faye Livesay and Elaine Kesti. She is survived by three brothers, Daniel Easter, Bill Easter and Keith Easter, all of Oklahoma, 2 sisters, Florence Hatch of Colorado and Melda Rossiter of Oklahoma, 2 daughters, Delberta Winton and Rose Winton, both living in Brewster, Washington, and one grandson, Dallas Easter of McCleary, Washington as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

While Margaret was still quite young, her family moved to Denver, Colorado where at the age of seven years, she survived polio and in her words 'had to learn to walk all over again'. In 1964, the family left Colorado and moved to Eugene, Oregon and then to Halsey, Oregon in 1965.

In 1967 she was baptized by by Bro. Dale Moore into the General Assembly and Church of the Firstborn and aside from her family, her happiest times were spent with the brethren.

In 1975, Margaret was married to Delbert Winton and they moved to Cave

Junction, Oregon. Delbert and Margaret were blessed with two children, Delberta Winton and Rose Winton.

Margaret and her girls moved often in her lifetime choosing to live near family members in one state or another for a time, but eventually settled in Brewster, Washington in 2006, near her closest sister Elaine, where she lived until she passed away.

Margaret's quick wit and dry humor will be missed by all the brethren, family and friends who had opportunity to know her.
