“ I met Marilyn in the early 1960s when she was a student at PLU. Her ability to do handstands amazed me. She was a deeply loving and caring person whose friendship I always treasured. The world has lost a remarkable person.

“ Marilyn was our brother Ned's loving partner for 20 years, and we have always loved and appreciated the joy and compassion she brought to his last years. We were fortunate to have her in our family and mourn her loss. She is deeply missed.
