

Michele A Houser

January 22, 1951 - July 7, 2015

Michele A. Houser was born January 22, 1951 in Seattle, Washington to Joseph and Alice Clark Skube. She went to grade school at Our Lady of Lourdes, and High school at Holy Names Academy in Seattle.

In her adult years her interests and jobs included cake decorating and was a flower and plant designer for a large company in the Seattle area. She was very artistic and followed those endeavors her whole life.

Later in life she tragically suffered from multiple brain aneurysms that sadly changed her whole life. After these tragic events she moved to Leavenworth to live with her mom and sister and brother in law, Julie and Ron Keen. After that she moved to Olympia to be by Mary for several years. Over the years she met many new friends that were a great comfort to her. About five years ago she moved to Pateros to live and help her sister Sue. She lived with Sue until her untimely death July 7, 2015.

She will be missed by her entire family and friends that she made throughout her time here. We love you Michele!
