Nay as his momma, myself and others affectionately called him was a kind hearted soul, a big teddy bear who loved his son & daughter & wife with all his heart and soul. Nay was a wonderful cook from the Bar BQ'S to his great chocolate chip cookies. I always enjoyed the Christmases I spent at Nay & Sandi's house. Nathan was a Godly Man who used to send out scripture every day I thought that was such a wonderful thing he did that I started doing it myself and I still do it to this day. Even though Nay will be missed so greatly by his family and friends I am relieved that he is no longer in the excruciating pain he was in. I know that God will deal fairely and lovingly with Nay, and that he will be watching over us all especially his children & Sandi forever from heaven. Goodbye Nathan thanks for always being so kind to me. I will miss you so much just know that we all love you till we meet again my friend Love Rosie and Drew
