

Patricia Ann Kohlman

March 17, 1940 - April 13, 2022

Pat Kohlman was born and raised in Bridgeport, WA, the daughter of Charlie and Bertha Washburn. She grew up in surround by her family. After she married Dan Kohlman, they moved to Redmond, WA, where they raised their three children: Randy Kohlman, Danny Kohlman (Kim Kohlman) and Dana Kohlman. She leaves behind two grandchildren: Cody Kohlman (Casey Kohlman), two great grandchildren; and Cierra Buechler (Nick Buechler). Pat was an amazing cook and best known for her incredible pies. She enjoyed gardening and grew beautiful roses in her home in Redmond and Bridgeport. She fished and hunted with her husband, Dan and her children. Pat wasn't in hunting camp to just be the cook; she embraced every aspect of hunting. Dan and Pat owned and worked the grocery store in Bridgeport that her parents had started. She passed away in the home.

Tribute Wall

“ Patricia Ann Kohlman

January 29, 2023 at 08:49 AM