“ *Cleo, Linda and family,
I will always remember going to Cleo and Pauline's house down the hill from our house to visit and for delicious fruit. I remember how elegant their home was. I remember the beautiful white carpets and thought about the challenge of keeping white carpets so beautiful while living on a farm. I also remember stopping by their home in Chelan to see how beautifully designed the home was. My parents enjoyed attending many basketball games with Cleo and Pauline not only at home, but also at away games, district and state. Pauline was a wonderful lady. Our deepest sympathy to your family. Nona (Joy) Attwood.*
