

Sharon Lee Kelm

June 20, 1950 - May 2, 2020

Sharon L (Harnishfeger) Kelm 69, of Omak, Washington passed away in Pateros, Washington on May 2, 2020 after a courageous nine-year battle with Stage 4 Melanoma Cancer.

Sharon was born to Barbara and Fredrick Henry Harnishfeger III on June 20, 1950 in Ellensburg, Washington. She graduated from high school in Chehalis in 1968. She spent time living in Tacoma, WA before moving to Eastern Washington and living in several towns then settling in Omak.

Sharon was in the customer service industry most of her life and retired from Safeway in Omak in 2013. Many would say she was "Known by many, Loved by all". Her positive attitude and beautiful smile turned customers and acquaintances into lifelong friends quickly. She loved being outdoors, taking care of her yard, working on home improvement projects, and raised calves on her property.

She is survived by her children, George and Keith Dunham, 5 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren, her sister Sandra L Miller, her brother Fredrick H Harnishfeger IV, and several nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles.

The immediate family will be having a private graveside service and celebration of life later this summer in Chehalis, WA.
