

Teresa Crandall

December 25, 1959 - January 16, 2024

Teresa Ann Crandall, 64, of Chelan, WA, passed away peacefully at Confluence Health Hospital, in Wenatchee, WA, on Tuesday, January 16, 2024, after a long struggle with health challenges. Teresa was scheduled for a routine procedure that developed complications. She was surrounded by family.

Teresa was a devoted wife, amazing mother, loving sister, the best aunt, and a special friend. She was born on Christmas Day in 1959 in Omak, WA, to Hillard and Sharon Mullins. Teresa grew up in the Chelan Valley and had a passion for crafting, beads, helping others, and enjoyed spending time at the casino. Teresa would help anyone and would offer the shirt off her back to anyone.

Teresa and Tim Crandall dated for 21 years and the two love birds ultimately married in Las Vegas, NV, on March 12, 1999. Tim and Teresa were together for a total of 46 amazing years. She and Tim had a wonderful life together, including spending time in the lake in Chelan, as well as road trips, camping, and numerous weekends at Wenatchee Valley Super Oval.

Teresa was preceded in death by her father, Hillard Mullins; mother, Sharon Mullins Floyd; and grandparents, Orbin and Hazel Branham; as well as William and Minnie Mullins. Teresa is survived by her loving husband, Tim Crandall of Chelan, WA; son, Colby Clark of Rancho Mission Viejo, CA; sister, Christie Nichols of Troy, MT; brother, Jeff Mullins of Wenatchee, WA; nephews: Eric Riggs of Huntley, MT and Andrew Nichols of Potomac, MT; nieces: Amy Price of Missoula, MT, Cresdon Mullins of Hemet, CA, Kayla Thomas of Maltby, WA, and Nicole Cooper of Chelan, WA. Teresa is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and others that she loved.

We love you, Teresa. You will be remembered in our hearts forever.

Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, March 16, 2024, from 1:00-4:00 P.M., at the Chelan Eagles (upstairs), 209 E. Woodin Ave, Chelan, WA.

“ Teresa, I will always cherish the memories I have of the love and support you showed me whenever my wife and I visited Lake Chelan. You were the hardest worker I ever met! Yet you always had a smile. Jayda and I both are forever grateful for the generosity you showed us making homemade jam jars for every table at our wedding. Take your rest in heaven.
