I am so very sorry for your loss. A few years ago I would see him at the post office every day. He was always a happy man! Our joke was determining whether it was cold outside or not. He never wore a coat..always short sleeves. If I saw him with a light sweater on I knew it was at least 10 degrees outside! He was a kind, gentle man. Thinking of you Toni, Christy, Lisa and families.

I've known Tony and his family only a short time, about five years, but what I remember most is how respectful he was to his wife, Loretta, and that they both adored their big dog who was friendly and well behaved. My thoughts are with Loretta, Chris and Tony during this difficult time.
