

Vola Jean Walker

January 10, 1934 - November 20, 2018

Vola “Grandma Jean” Walker passed away in her Orondo home November 20, 2018, after an extended illness. She was born January 10, 1934 in Bates, Arkansas to Lonnie and Bonnie Reed (Ridenour). She married James Walker February 22, 1953 in Las Vegas, Nevada, having one son, Jim Walker. James and Jean were agricultural workers who chased the harvests from Arkansas to the Pacific Northwest, ultimately making their home in Washington State. After retirement, Jean loved nothing more than walking through the orchard, admiring springtime’s blooms or sizing up the harvest. Jean also greatly treasured her family, and instilling a strong work ethic and the importance of ‘getting a good education’ were priorities when raising both her son and teaching her grandchildren. An excellent cook of Southern comfort food, she typically could be found in her kitchen baking. Her favorite pastimes were shoe shopping, reading about our area’s history, Sunday drives, and drinking iced hazelnut lattes. Her good nature, quick laughter, patience, and level-headedness made her a treasured friend and “Grandma Jean” to all. A three-time cancer survivor and fighter until the end, Jean will be deeply missed. She is preceded in death by her parents Lonnie and Bonnie, husband ‘Shug’, brothers CL, WC, Glen, and sister Helen. She is survived by her sons Jim & Bill (Cheryl) Walker, brother Gary (Donna), granddaughters Stephanie (Bep) and her mother Barbara, Morgan and her mother Sue, step-grandsons Tyler and Greg, great-grandson Ethan, friend Jenny and her beloved dachshunds Oscar and Luna.

“ Oh, Grandma...it's so weird that you're gone. I still have your lipstick you gave me in my purse and most of the sweaters hanging in my closet we're given to me by you. I can still hear your funny sayings and anecdotes in my head, and only after a moment do I remember that you're no longer here. You were the best; I'll always remember gathering seeds with you, thinning apples, going to Merle Norman for makeup, that train trip to Cali...see? I'm already smiling again. You always had my back. I love you!

“ There are no words that could begin to express my gratefulness to have had Jean in my life. She will live on forever in my heart. I will always hear her words, feel her strength, and appreciate her kindness. I'm so thankful for all she taught me.
You'll be so missed, but never forgotten.
